Alison Dunlap has been a member of the LUNA Women's Mountain Bike Team since 2002. She raced competitively for 18 years, went to 2 Olympics, won the World Championships, the World Cup title, and has 13 National Championships to her name. Although Alison hasn't raced since 2005 she is an active member of Team LUNA Chix, holding race clinics at various NMBS events as well as running camps, clinics, and coaching through her company The Alison Dunlap Adventure Camps. Visit her website at www.alisondunlap.com or contact her directly at alison@alisondunlap.com.

Argentinean by heart & nature, Jimena (Florit) Dolzadelli has been a professional mountain bike racer for over 12 years, competing all over the world and elbowing with the fastest women on earth. She competed in 2 Olympic Games, 3 Pan-American Games, and 9 World Championships. She is also a 4 time NORBA Champion (XC and Short Track), Pan-American Gold medalist, and multiple race winner. But most of all, She is proud of her two babies!
